Sue: I wanted to make a salad you served last time. Can you give me the recipe?

Kate: Of course! So, first you prepare products: 2 tomatoes, 2 boiled eggs, 200gr cheese, 4 boiled potatoes, 200gr sausage, salt, mayonnaise.

Sue: Not so quickly, Kate. Let's check -2 tomatoes, 2 boiled eggs, 200gr cheese, 4 boiled potatoes, 200gr sausage, salt, mayonnaise.

Kate: Yes, that's right. After that grate eggs, cheese and potatoes. Chop tomatoes and the sausage. Take a bowl and put the products in layers. You know, the salad is called "Jazz cocktail" – so the order of products doesn't really matter.

I love to get presents in the form of an Easter egg and give souvenirs to my nearest and dearest. Sometimes my mum and dad hide eggs about the house and my brother and I have great fun to find them. We also like egg-rolling and egg-shackling.

I've never been to the Easter Parade in Battersea Park, London. But my mum promised to go there this year on Easter Sunday.

How do you celebrate Easter? Do you play any Easter games?

Best regards, Sandy
